MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE HASHEMITE UNIVERSITY AND THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

The Hashemite University (Jordan) and the University of Arizona (Tucson, AZ, USA) (hereinafter referred to as the "parties"), in the firm conviction that academic exchange between the parties will promote academic research and other activities, hereby conclude the following Agreement.

Article 1. The parties agree to implement exchanges and other activities in areas of academic research, subject to availability of funds and the approval of each institution, of mutual interest through the following:

- (1) Exchange of faculty and administrative staff and researchers;
Faculty (from both institutions), especially those on sabbatical and /or leave of absence may participate in collaborative activities and exchange.

Prior to implementing individual visits of faculty members, representatives of the two institutions shall secure approvals from their respective department heads, deans, and other appropriate institutional officials.

Office space and academic facilities provided to visiting faculty members shall be made by the respective department or school in consultation with the visiting faculty members.

- (2) Exchange of students; Provide opportunity for Hashemite University students to spend a semester at the University of Arizona to benefit from the advanced laboratories and utilities provided for the above-mentioned University students.

Provide opportunity for University of Arizona students to spend one or more semesters at The Hashemite University to benefit from the advanced laboratories and utilities provided for The Hashemite University students.

Specific Terms of Agreement for Student Exchange shall be worked out between the parties in a separate document which incorporates the terms and condition of such exchange program.

- (3) Conducting collaborative research;
- (4) Holding joint lectures and symposia;
- (5) Exchange of academic information and materials.

Article 2. Actual projects to be implemented for the realization of specific exchange activities as defined in the preceding article shall be decided through discussion between the parties and implementing agreements setting forth the financial and other terms.

Article 3. In the case that research results impacting upon matters of intellectual property rights are expected to arise in the course of collaborative projects carried out under the terms of Article 1 above, the parties shall discuss in good faith and agree in a separate document the conditions regarding the treatment of intellectual property rights so arising, prior to the start of the collaborative project in question and in accordance with the policies of each party.

Article 4. This Agreement is valid for two years effective from the date of the final signature affixed below by the parties hereto (hereinafter referred to as the "term"). The term of the Agreement may be extended upon agreement by the parties. Either party may terminate the Agreement during its term by giving six months advance written notice to the other party.

Article 5. This Agreement is created in English only and any other duplicate shall not be deemed original.

Article 6. This MOU is not intended to be a binding agreement between the Parties, but rather a statement of the intentions of the Parties to negotiate the terms and conditions of a formal agreement for mutual cooperation and activities in the future, including specific provisions for the ownership of intellectual property, as well as financial consideration.

The parties hereby establish this Agreement by duly signing it, as of the respective dates below.
