

Dr Bader Salameh Lab

My lab research is focus mainly on Organic synthesis, which include but not limited the synthesis of heterocyclic compounds and compounds that contain carbohydrate moieties. We give special interest to the synthesis of glkycoconjugates, which are compounds that have a part of sugar and a part of heterocycles, especially those with special interest in medicinal chemistry