

Freelance Photographer (2020–present)
Contributor to Local & International Photography Competitions

Raghad Alshwiyat is a fourth-year Architectural Engineering student with a strong passion for photography. With over five years of experience in the field, she has participated in numerous local and international photography competitions, including the “Wameed Competition” sponsored by the Royal Film Commission, “Tarateel fi Mihrab Al-Ghaim,” “Ajloun Lens Competition,” and “Amman Through Our Eyes,” reflecting her dedication to visual storytelling and artistic development.

Leadership & Experience
AIAS Contant creation Team Manger

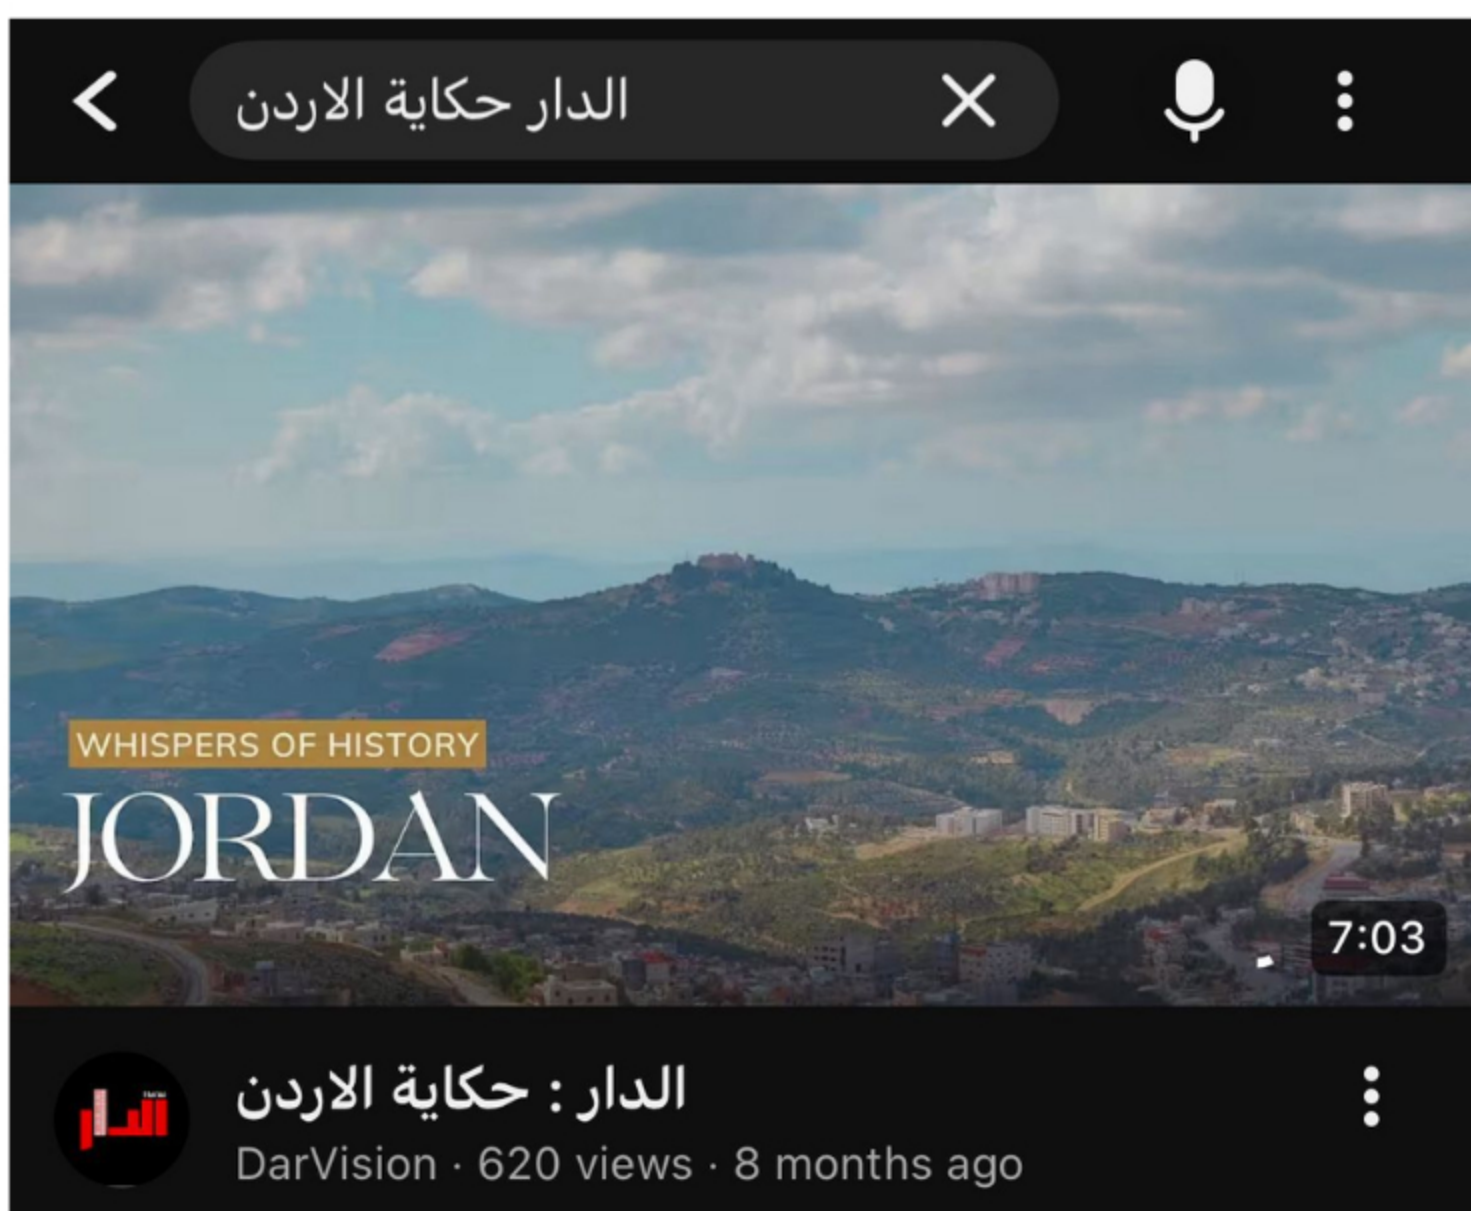

baain channel Contant creation

RAGHAD ALSHWYIAT

Al Dar” Film – The Royal Film Commission

Scan me to watch it !

This film, which was presented at the Royal Film Commission – Jordan, explores how Jordan is viewed through the eyes of different cultures. It highlights the way we present our landscapes, heritage, and identity to the world through cinematic storytelling.

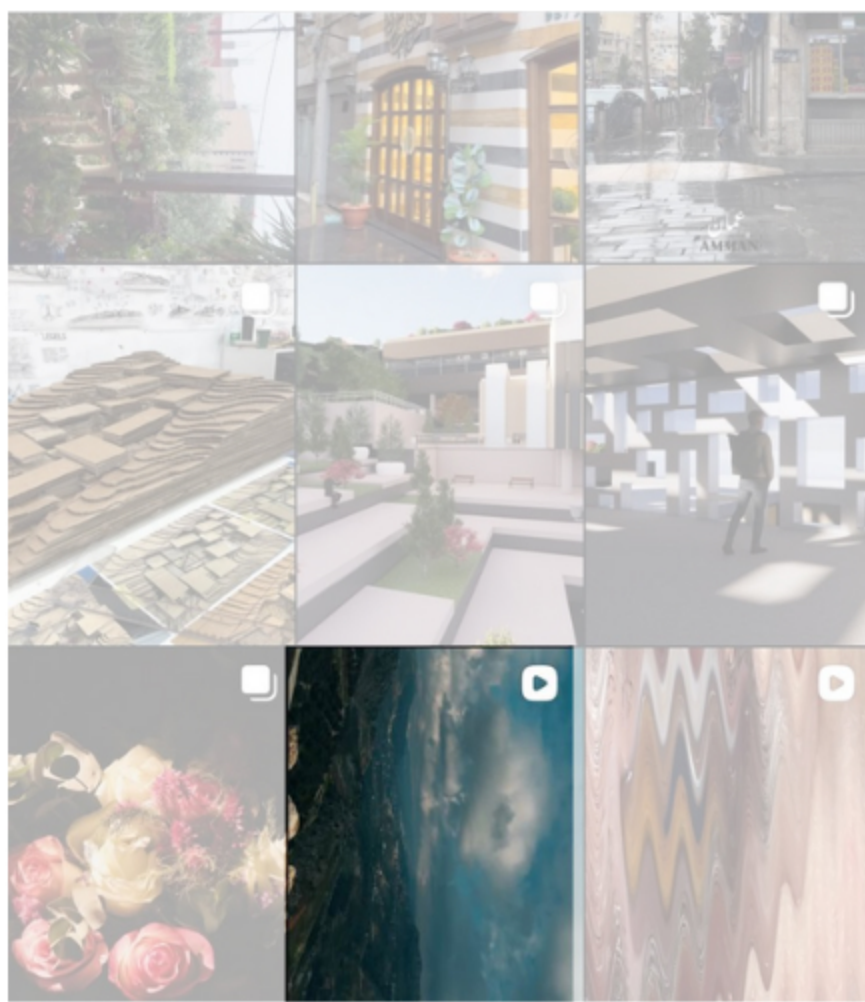

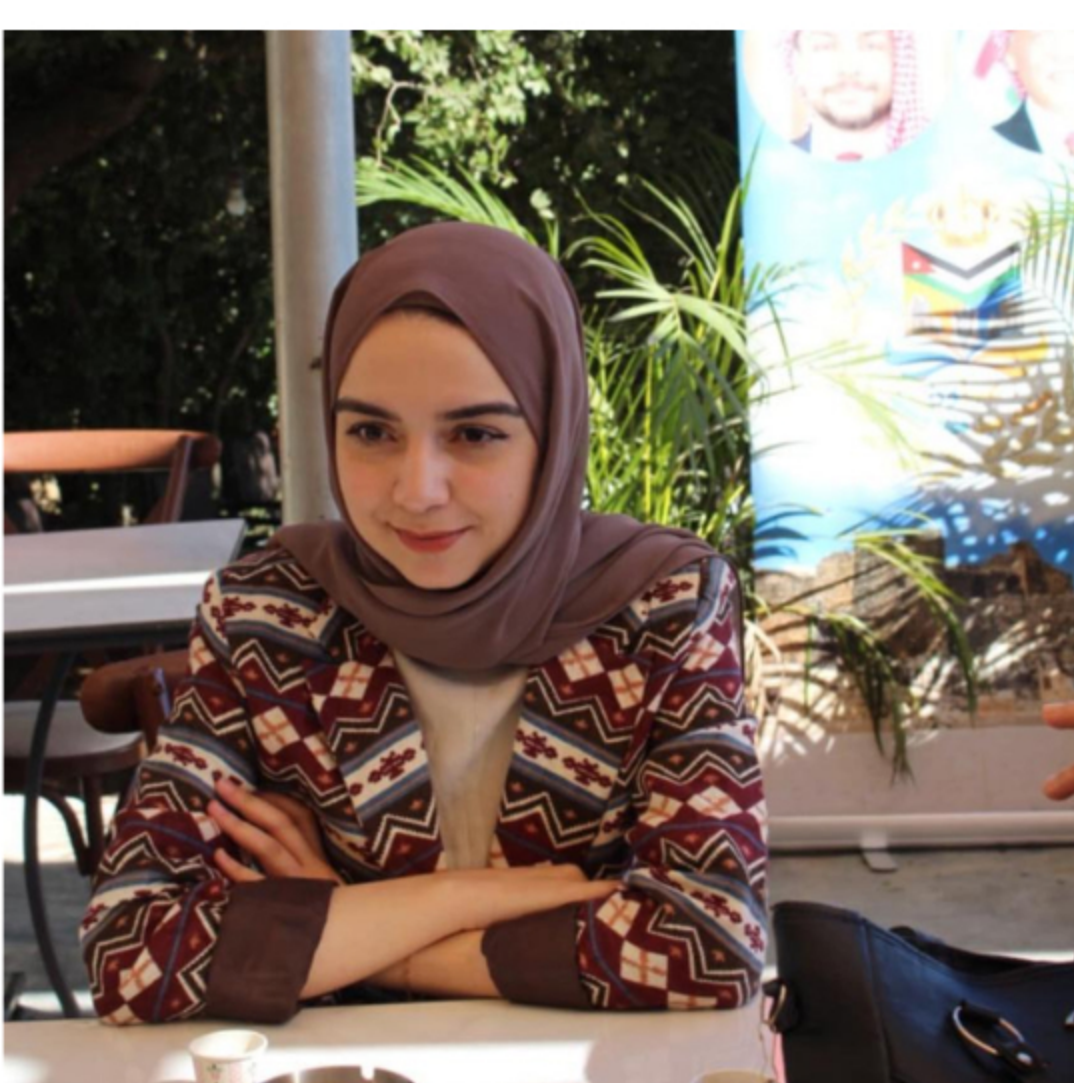

The film reflects a unique perspective on sharing the beauty and cultural richness of Jordan with others, creating a visual bridge between cultures. It was awarded third place in the competition, recognizing its strong narrative and visual impact.

Ajloun: Where Nature Breathes

Scan me to watch it !

This film began with the idea of highlighting the natural and historical beauty of Ajloun, known for its green forests, stunning landscapes, and rich historical landmarks. The aim of the film was not only to document the place, but to convey a visual feeling that reflects the spirit of Ajloun and its calm nature.

The idea create a cinematic visual experience that combines nature and history, The film was awarded first place in the competition in recognition of its concept and visual execution.

