

Project Title :The HU Landmark

St. Name: Hanan Waleed Othman Saleh

Project DescriptionThe Hashemite University is rapidly growing on national and international levels. It is now an alma mater for a growing number of internationally distinguished scholars who either studied or taught in it, or both. Designing a landmark is a need to capture the university's spirit, vision, and orientation. It can help to define the identity of the University. In this project student are given the opportunity to design a landmark for HU university that will be placed on the on the first roundabout of the university, opposite to the main gate.

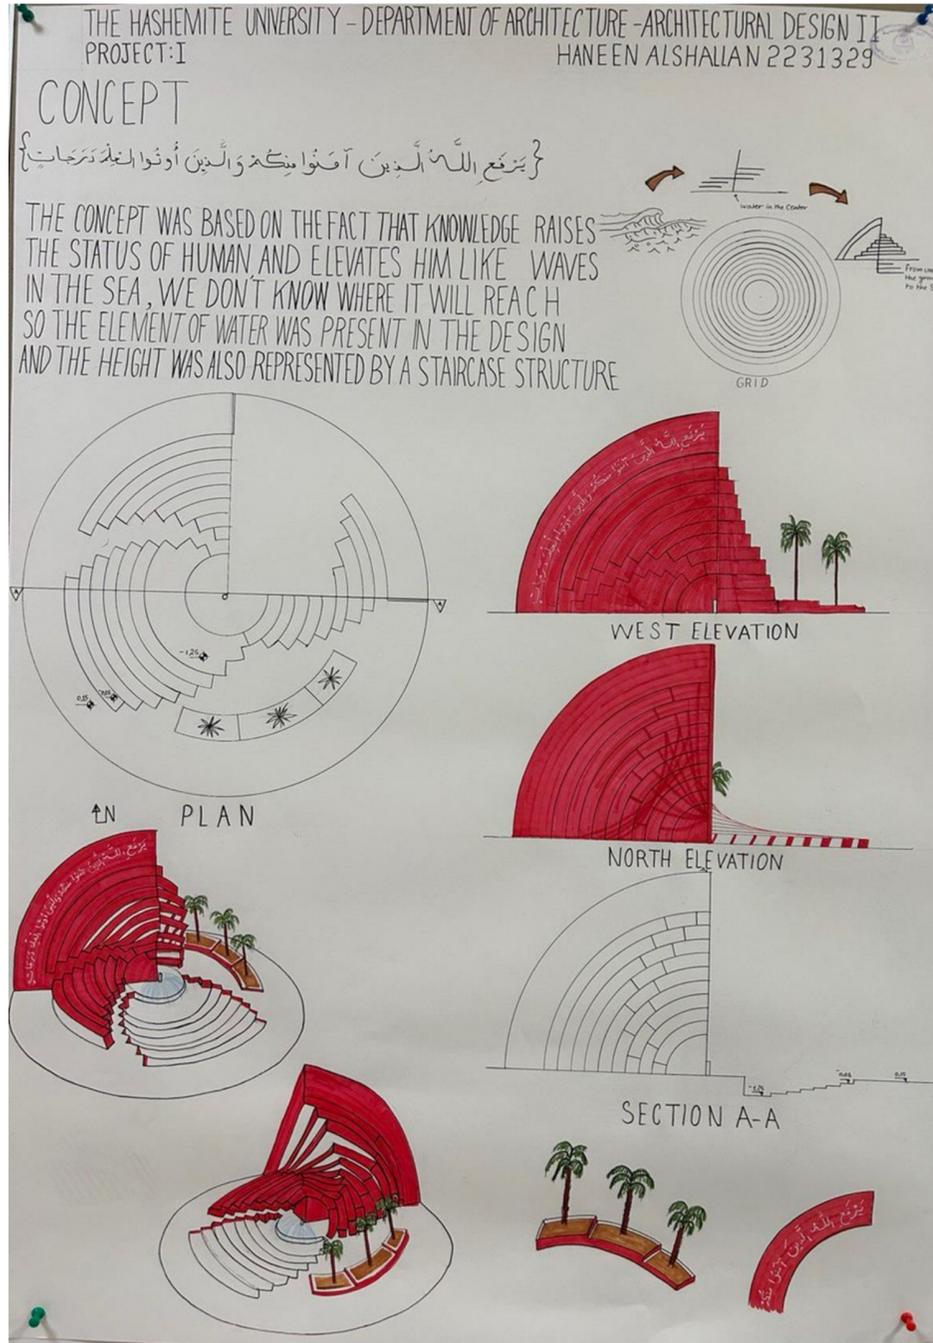

SPC: A6-B4

Project Title :The HU Landmark

St. Name: HANEEN ALI ABDALLAH ALSHALAN

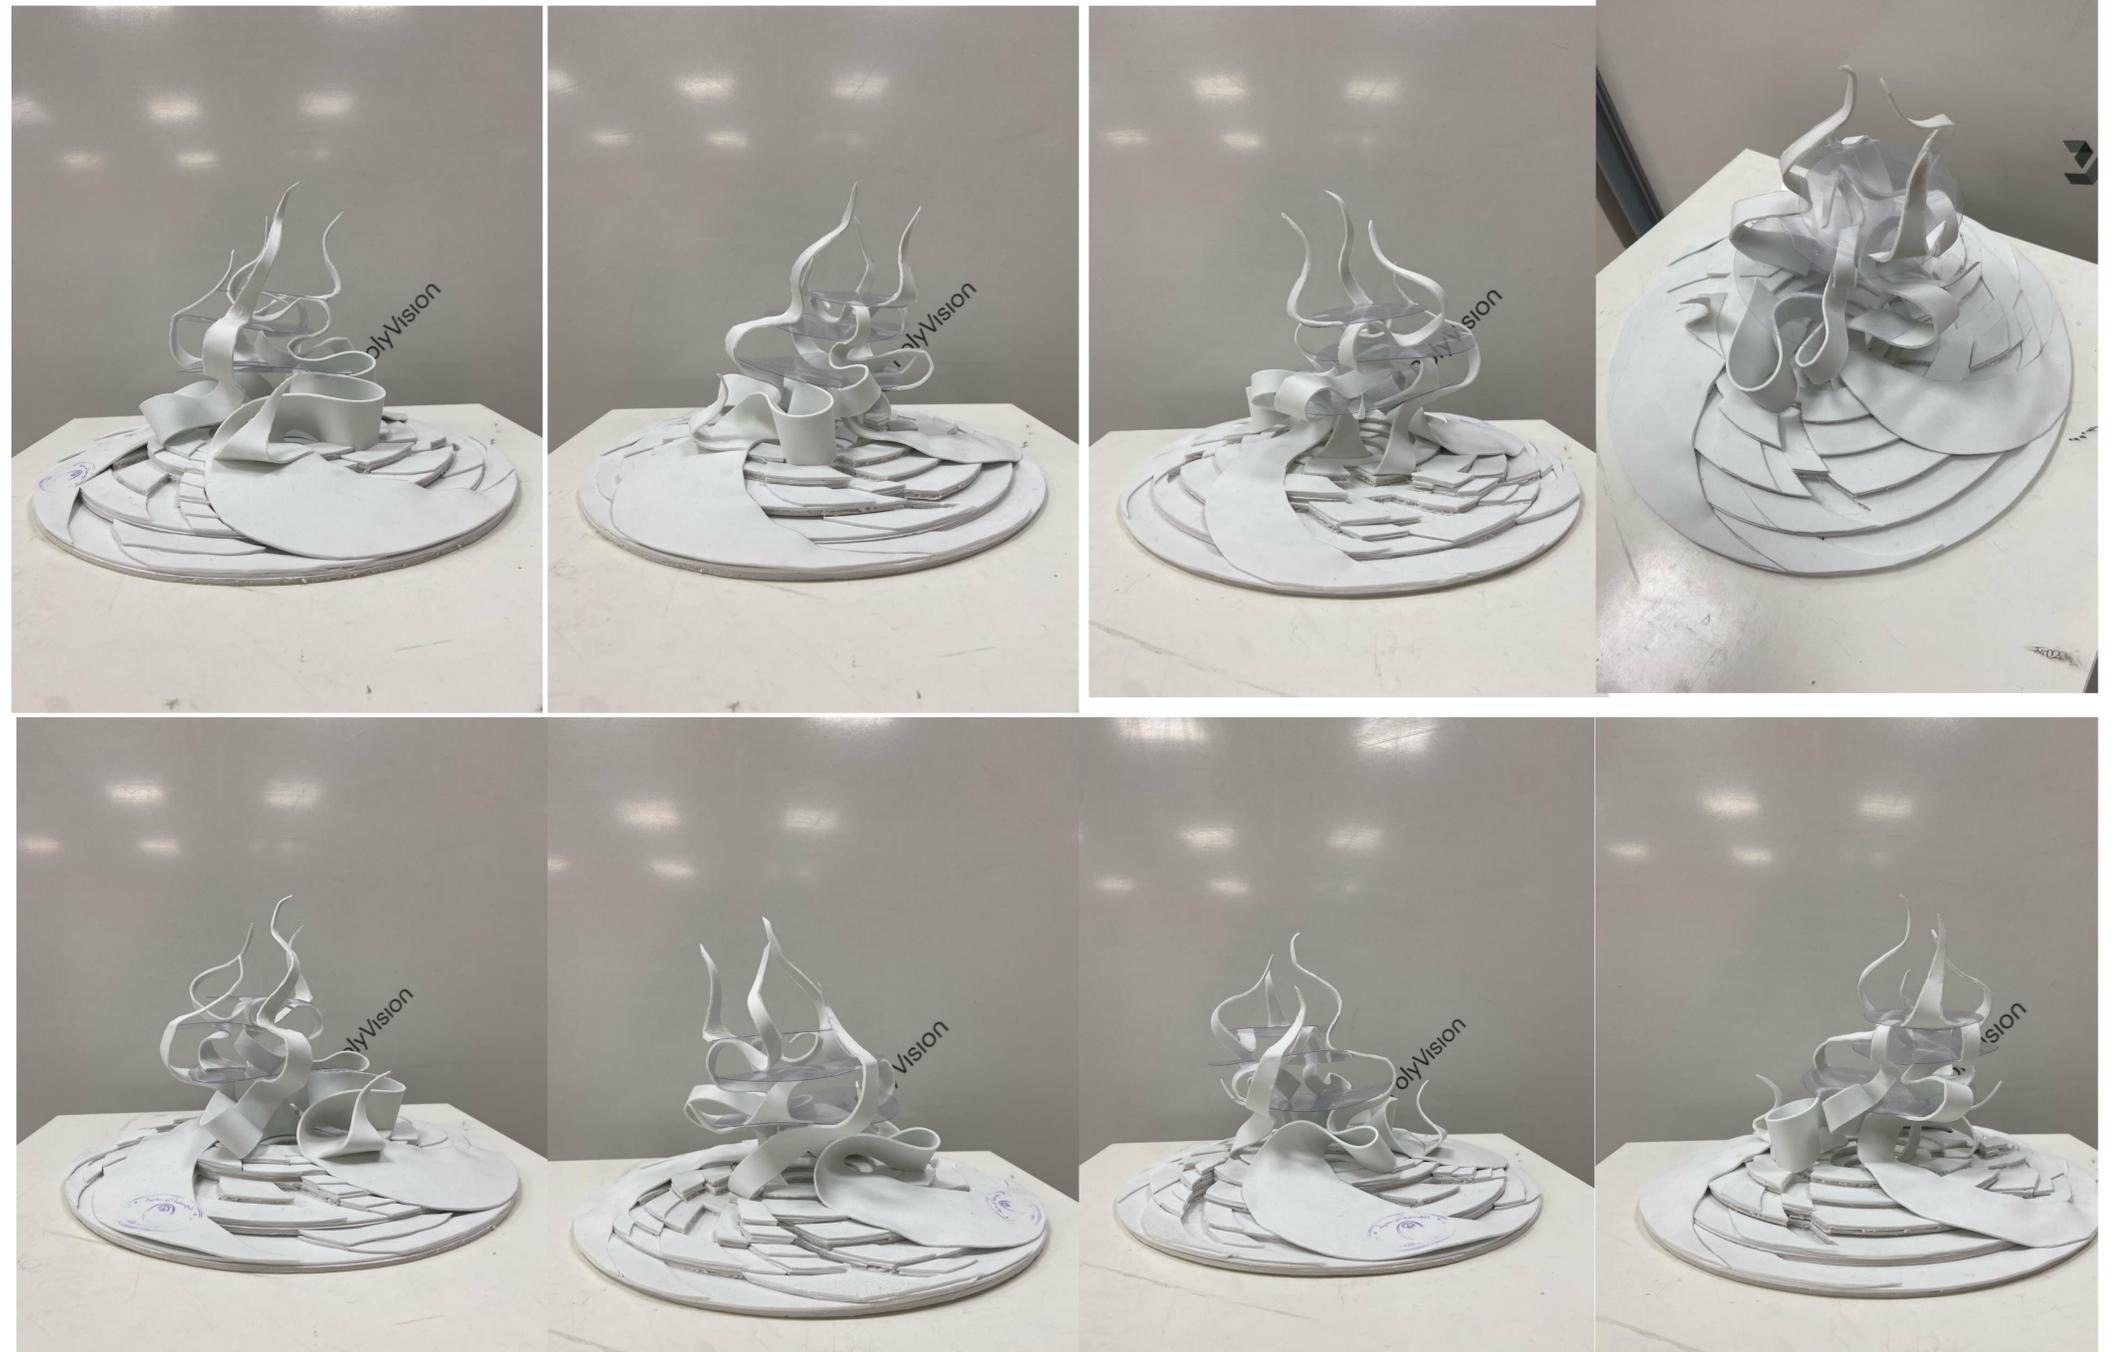

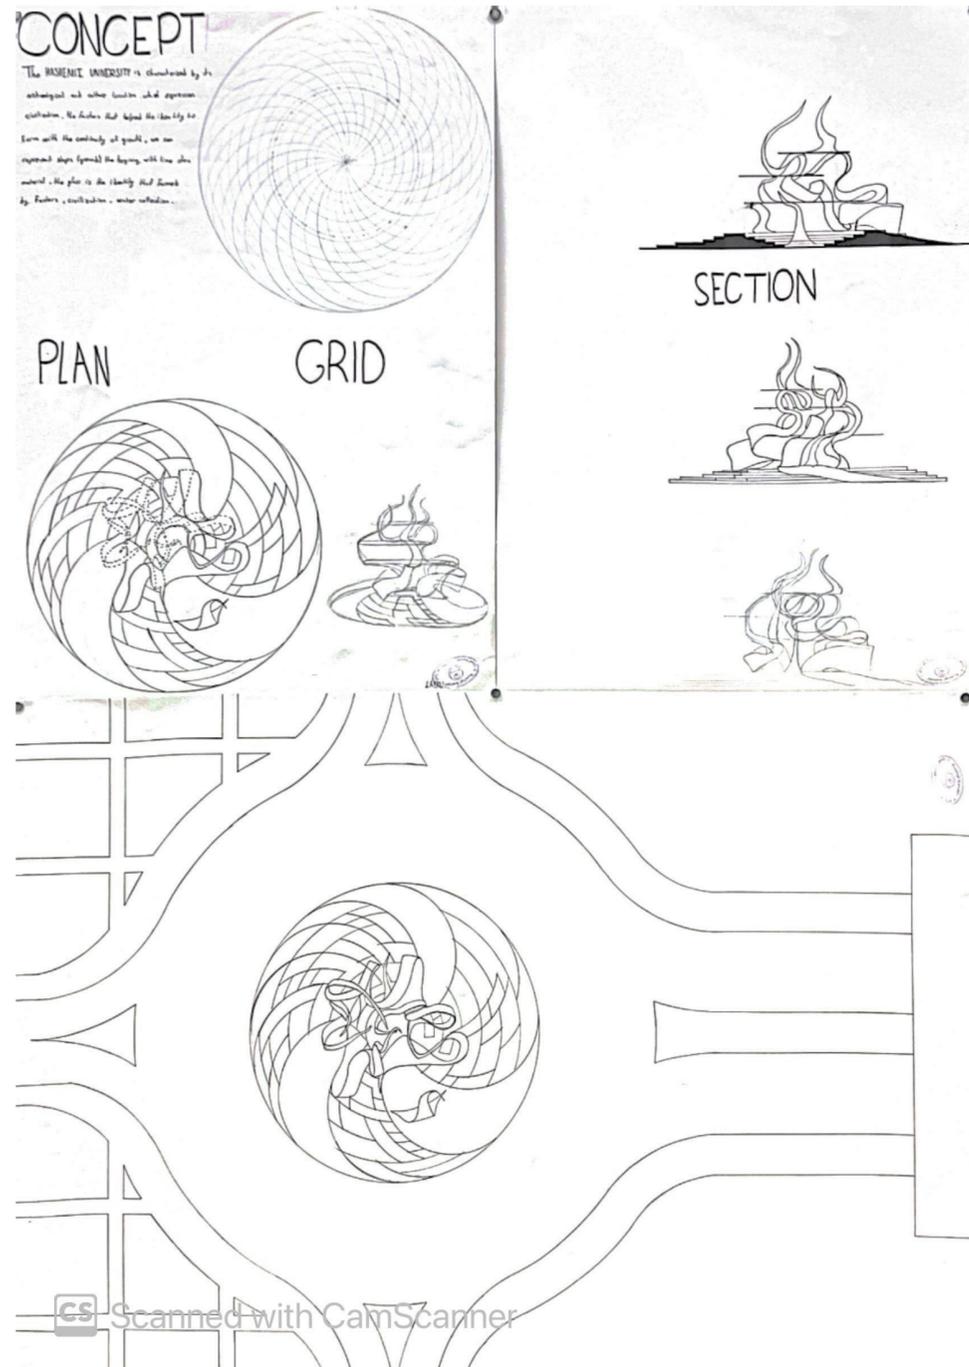

Project DescriptionThe Hashemite University is rapidly growing on national and international levels. It is now an alma mater for a growing number of internationally distinguished scholars who either studied or taught in it, or both. Designing a landmark is a need to capture the university's spirit, vision, and orientation. It can help to define the identity of the University. In this project student are given the opportunity to design a landmark for HU university that will be placed on the on the first roundabout of the university, opposite to the main gate.

Project Title :The HU Landmark

St. Name: Layan Ahed Alhinnawi

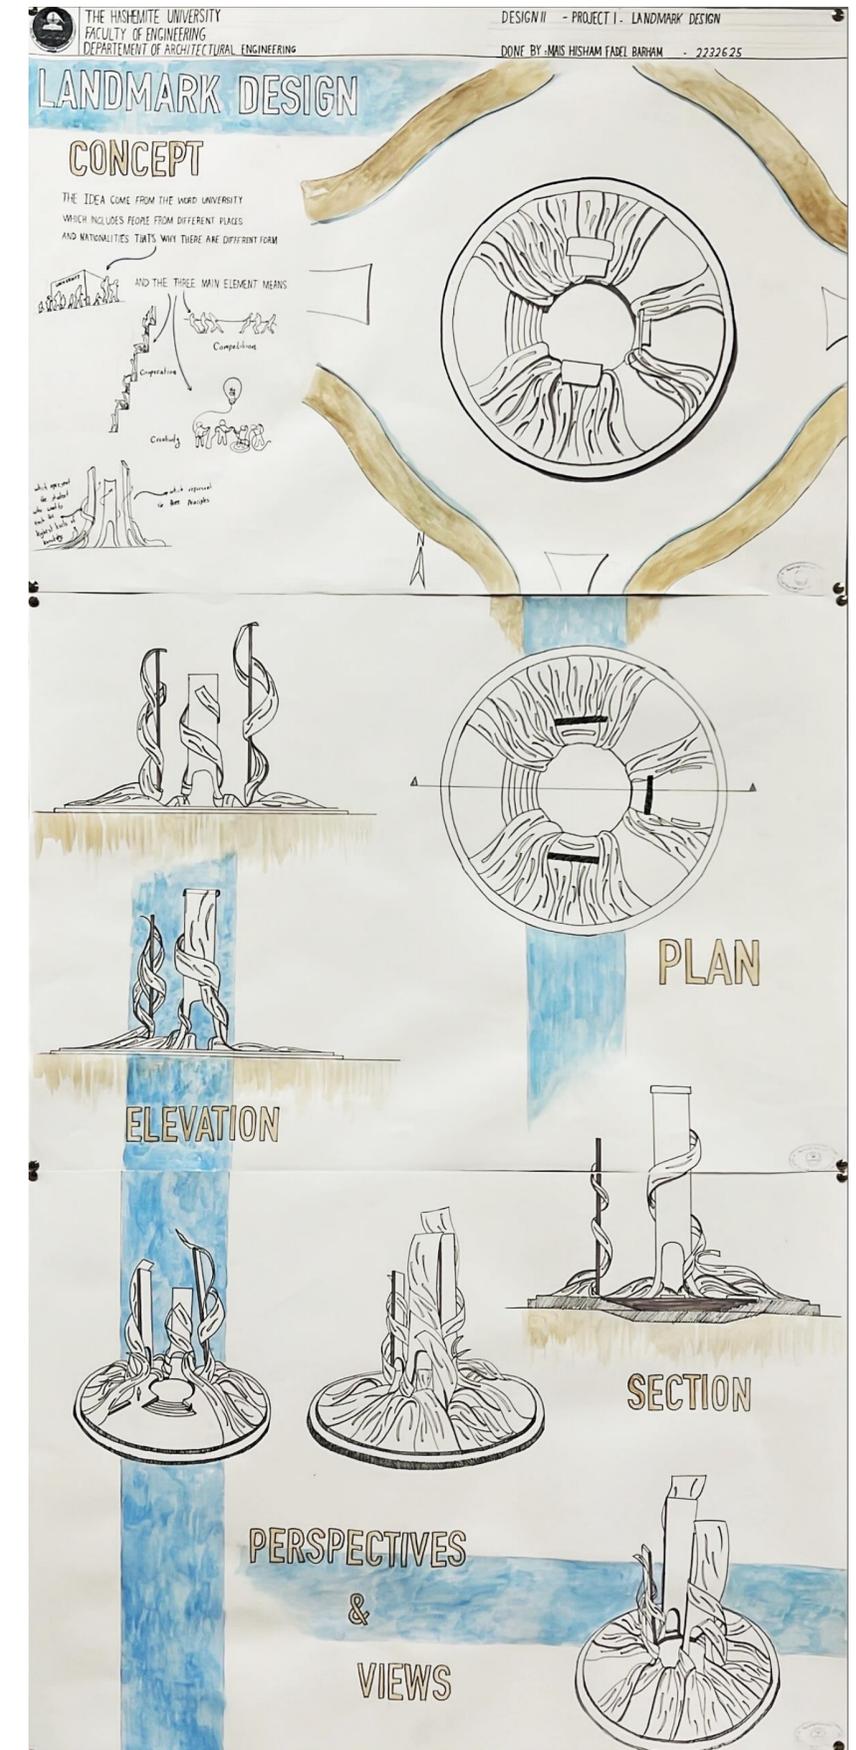

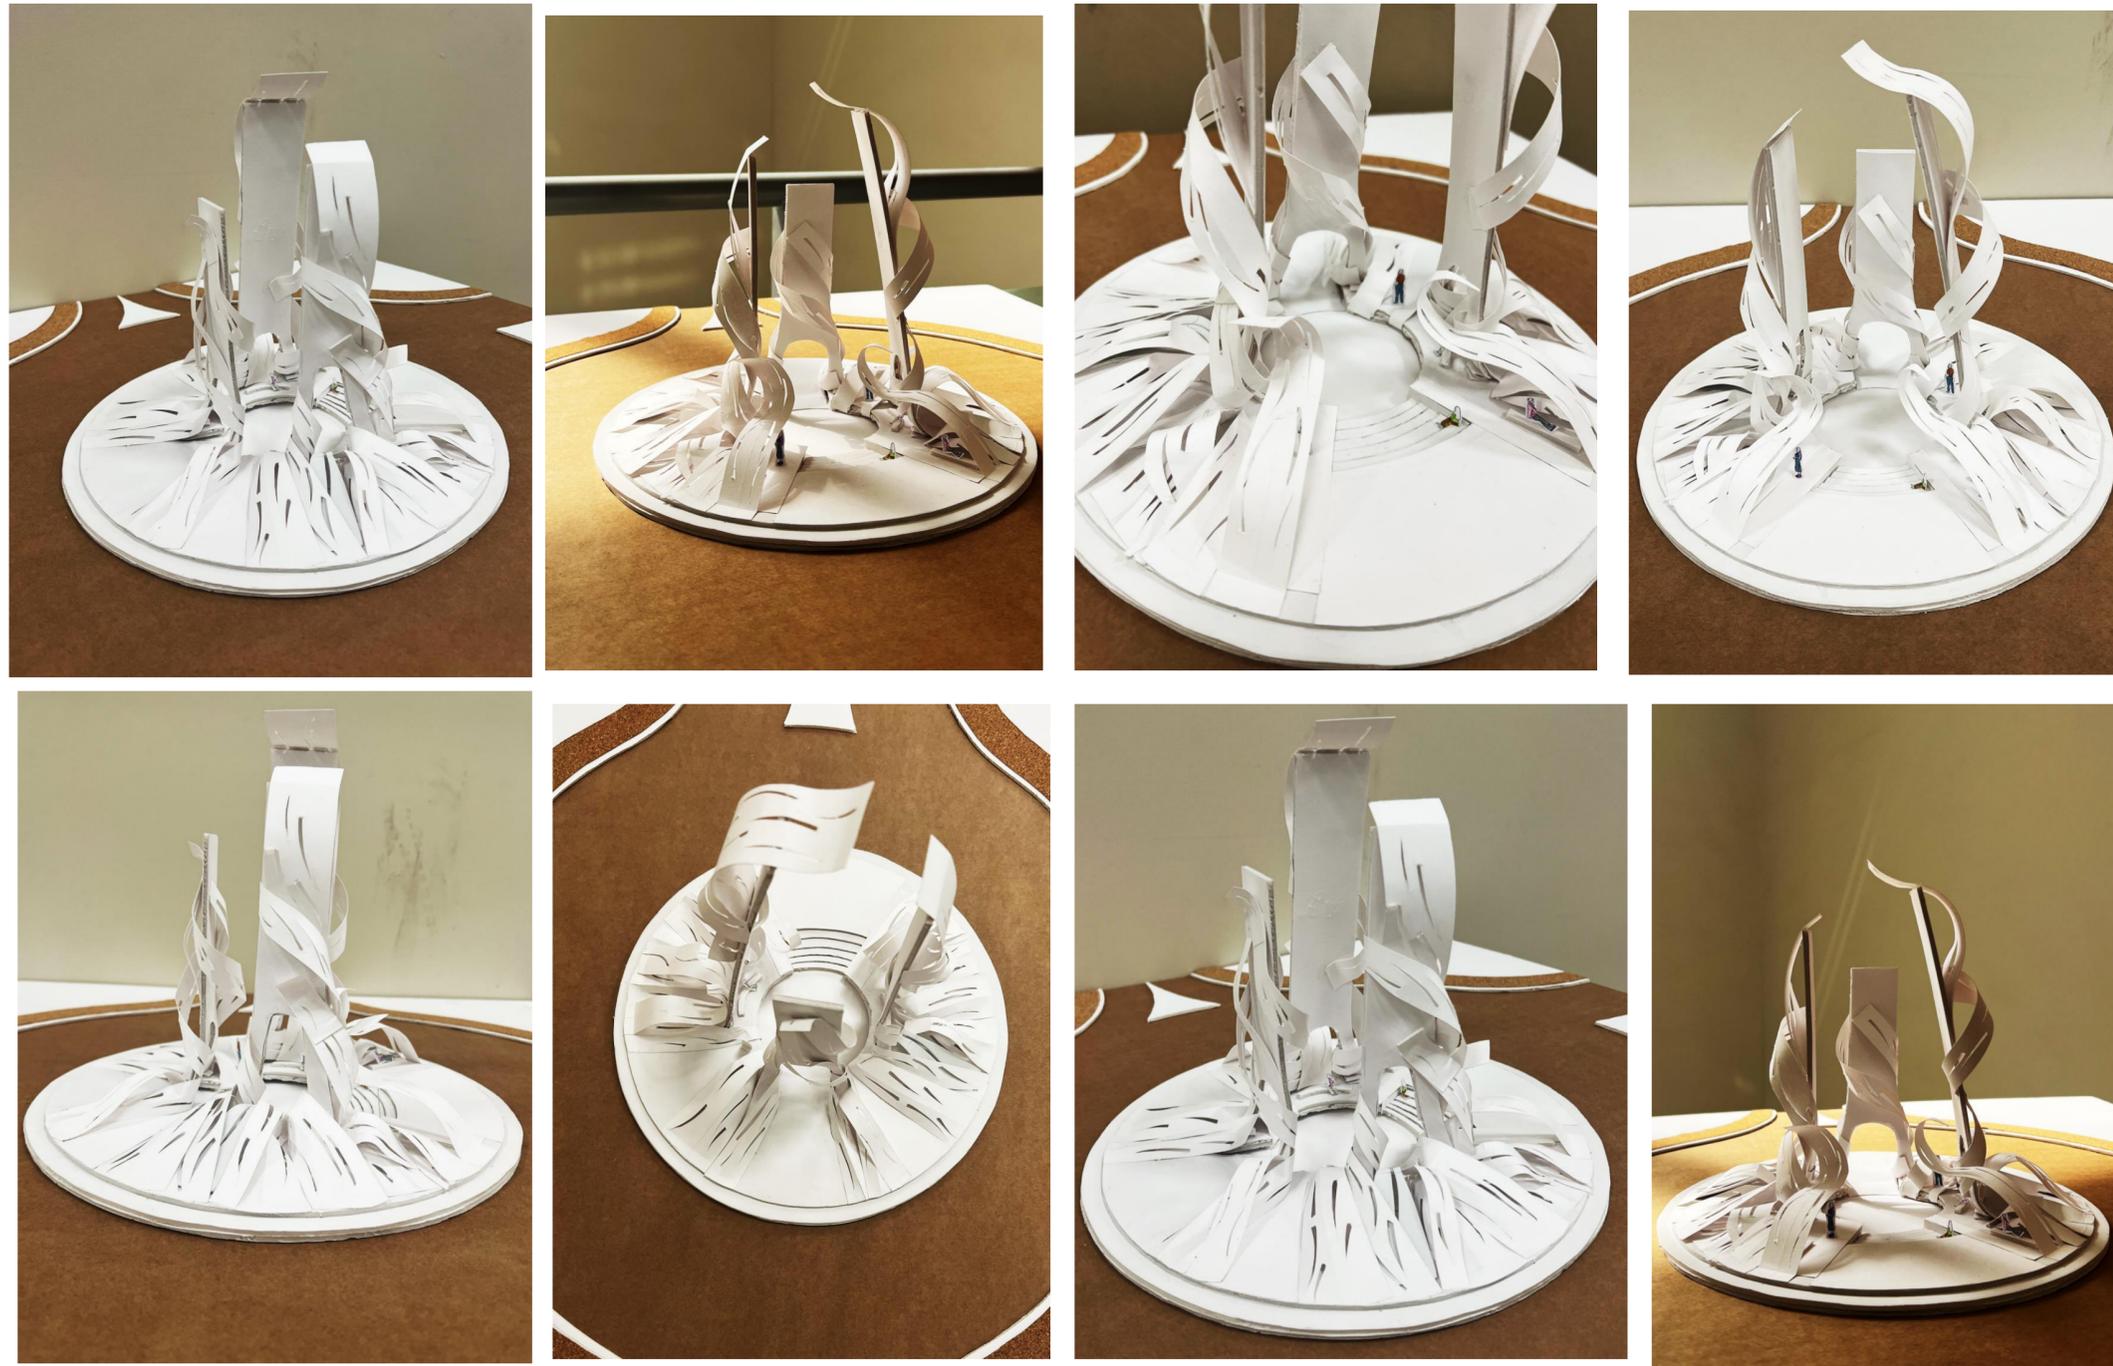

Project DescriptionThe Hashemite University is rapidly growing on national and international levels. It is now an alma mater for a growing number of internationally distinguished scholars who either studied or taught in it, or both. Designing a landmark is a need to capture the university's spirit, vision, and orientation. It can help to define the identity of the University. In this project student are given the opportunity to design a landmark for HU university that will be placed on the on the first roundabout of the university, opposite to the main gate.

Project Title :The HU Landmark

St. Name: Mais Hisham Fadel Barham

Project DescriptionThe Hashemite University is rapidly growing on national and international levels. It is now an alma mater for a growing number of internationally distinguished scholars who either studied or taught in it, or both. Designing a landmark is a need to capture the university's spirit, vision, and orientation. It can help to define the identity of the University. In this project student are given the opportunity to design a landmark for HU university that will be placed on the on the first roundabout of the university, opposite to the main gate.

SPC: A6-B4

Project Title :The HU Landmark

Abrar Adel Mahmoud Ismael

Project DescriptionThe Hashemite University is rapidly growing on national and international levels. It is now an alma mater for a growing number of internationally distinguished scholars who either studied or taught in it, or both. Designing a landmark is a need to capture the university's spirit, vision, and orientation. It can help to define the identity of the University. In this project student are given the opportunity to design a landmark for HU university that will be placed on the on the first roundabout of the university, opposite to the main gate.

