

International Accreditation of the Faculty of Medicine at Hashemite University

The Faculty of Medicine at The Hashemite University obtained the full international accreditation by American Medical Residency Certification Board (AMRCB) for 6 years starting from 2016 to 2022. AMRCB is an international independent organization based in USA that provide accreditation to medical schools based on teaching, research, curriculum, staff, and available facilities. Accreditation by AMRCB enhances the Faculty of Medicine international reputation and provide chanced for its graduates to enroll in international training programs.

