

Research interest by department members:

Faculty	Research interest
Dr Abdallah Faleh Abu Khait	Reminiscence and life review therapy among older adults with and without dementia, effectiveness of meaning-centered psychotherapy on mental-health related outcomes among oncologic patients, workplace violence against psychiatric nurses, nonpharmacological techniques among Muslim patients who live in the USA
Prof. Dr. Hanan Muhammad Al-Modallal	Domestic Violence and Workplace Violence; measurement and psychometric analysis; women's mental health
Dr Sami Yousef Al-Rawashdehion	Adults population health in homes and long-term care settings: family caregiving; family caregivers' experiences and outcomes (burden, sleep disturbance, quality of life, hope; chronic illnesses management; pain management
Dr Rola Husni Al Mudallal	Leadership and Management in nursing, quality of nursing care, work environment, organizational Behaviors: burnout, job stressors, motivation, job satisfaction, leadership, empowerment, management psychology, health Informatics
Dr Saleem Faek Al-Rjoub	Leadership management followership, job Satisfaction, staff satisfaction, organizational culture, nursing administration decision making, transformational leadership theory, empowering nurses
Prof. Dr Shaher H. Hamaideh	Mental health nursing, schizophrenia, stress and adaptation women's' mental health, violence
Prof.Dr Majd T. Mrayyan	Policy Development and Analysis, legal and ethical argumentative essays, electronic data collection, standardize languages, nurses' autonomy, medication errors, nurse managers' actions, patients' Satisfaction, quality of care, nurses' job satisfaction and performance, nurses' retention, patient safety, career commitment, job stressors and social support.