

Welcoming Ceremony of New Students

The Queen Rania Faculty of Tourism and Heritage at the Hashemite University organized a welcoming ceremony for its new students, with the participation of current students from previous years. The event included various activities and aspects relevant to students' university life.

The Dean of the Faculty, Professor Dr. Nayef Haddad, welcomed the new students and congratulated them on their acceptance at the Hashemite University. He emphasized the importance of the faculty's programs, which deepen students' understanding of Jordan's cultural heritage. He also stressed the importance of communication between students and academic advisors, encouraging students to seize the opportunity to explore all the university offers by engaging in academic and practical activities organized by the faculty, as well as extracurricular activities facilitated by the Deanship of Student Affairs.

Dr. Yusra Khalayleh, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, highlighted the importance of communication between students and the Deanship of Student Affairs to learn about the services, courses, and extracurricular activities it offers. She underscored the significant role these opportunities play in equipping students with knowledge and skills that help refine their personalities and prepare them to excel in their academic and future professional journeys.

The Vice Dean and heads of departments in the faculty also addressed the students, emphasizing the importance of adhering to academic guidance and consulting the electronic student guide available on the university's website. They noted that this guide contains the rules and regulations governing students' relationship with the university. They reaffirmed their commitment to providing all forms of support needed by students during their academic and professional journeys, offering advice and answering all their questions.

Senior students shared their experiences of university life and highlighted key aspects that new students should be aware of to set themselves on the right path at the university. The event included segments introducing students to their university portal and the services accessible through it, along with other important topics.
