The Syllabus of English Communication Skills

Title: English Communication Skills (2116021101)

English Communication Skills (101) is a three-credit-hour university requirement course. The course is provided by the Language Centre to represent a review of the language functions and structures that are necessary for successful communication in both verbal and written language. The course mainly helps students to develop their abilities in the basic skills of English: listening, speaking, reading and writing. The overall objective of the course is to provide students with essential skills that enable them to communicate effectively in English. The course is also designed to prepare students for the TOEFL test (Test of English as a Foreign Language).

Course Objectives:

Knowledge and understanding:

- To enrich the students' asset of vocabulary.
- To expose students to a variety of challenging and interesting text-types and structural activities.
- To expose students to the most up-to-date English as used on a daily basis.

Intellectual skills:

- To encourage students to analyze the systems of language in use.
- To enable students to approach different texts through different strategies and at various levels (parts of speech; sentence parts; positions of adjectives, adverbs; paragraphs; essays, etc.)

Employment skills:

- To enable students to use English fluently.
- To enable students to sit for the test which is an entrance requirement for admission at universities in the States.

Textbook:

Philips, Deborah. (2003). Longman: Preparation Course for the TOEFL test.

Evaluation:

Midterm Exam 45%

Attendance and Participation: 5%

Final Exam: 50%

Course Strategy:

- The course will be taught online through the Microsoft Teams application.
- You should attend classes regularly.
- The midterm and final exams are assigned in accordance with the academic calendar; you should know about the details of the exams from the STUDENT PORTAL on the University Website.
- Don't be absent on the day of the exam and know that no make-up exam will be conducted unless you bring an official proof justifying your absence.
