

The Beginning:

The story of Arabic for non-native speakers at HU started with the Arabic Summer Intensive Program (ASIP) which was launched in affiliation with the University of Oklahoma in the summer of 2003. Since then, the program has attracted a remarkable number of students from various US universities.